Where bold ideas meet... ...powerful partnerships begin

We're helping the world of scholarly publishing find new ways to build community and share tomorrow's breakthroughs with the world.

The value of digital transformation across your society.

 Membership: Engage community around early-stage research

 Events: Organize and host virtual and hybrid events

 Business development: Develop sustainable revenue with e-commerce capabilities

 Publications: Build a pipeline for future journal content from our libraries

The opportunity for partnership opens up a world of possibilities.

 Improve collaboration with a global, more diverse community

 Connect all research outputs to trace the evolution of scientific thought

 Help advance researchers' careers with profiles and networking

 Streamline workflows while prioritizing research integrity

Our solutions:

Peer Review Workflows – Flexible for abstracts, proceedings, presentations, and more

Conference Hubs – Organize virtual or hybrid events focused on sharing research

Research Libraries – Curate multimedia libraries that capture ongoing discussions
